NEWS RELEASE

APPOINTS NEW PRESIDENT AND CEO RICHARD J. HAMELIN AND
VICE PRESIDENT EXPLORATION CARL VON EINSIEDEL

June 15th, 2005 UC Resources Ltd., (UC - TSX-V) is pleased to announce that Richard Hamelin has been appointed as President and Chief Executive Officer and Director. Mr. Hamelin worked in the mining industry for Kidd Creek Mines Ltd for twelve years and later worked in the securities industry, most notably with Canaccord Capital Corp. in Montreal. Mr. Hamelin left the brokerage industry in 2002 and combined his mining and financial services expertise, and started consulting as a merger, acquisition and financing adviser to the junior mineral resource sector. In 2004, Mr. Hamelin relocated from Montreal to Central Mexico to provide "hands-on" advice for public and private company's interests for growing mining operations in Mexico. Mr. Hamelin looks forward to the new lead role with UC Resources.

Carl von Einsiedel has been appointed V.P. of Exploration; he has been an exploration geologist with more than 25 years experience managing gold, base metal & diamond exploration projects throughout Canada, U.S. & Mexico. Mr. von Einsiedel has been involved in many successful exploration programs and has helped several junior exploration companies arrange financing and develop working partnerships with major mining companies.

Eugene Larabie will remain a director of UC Resources and the Board thanks Mr. Larabie for his contributions.

UC Resources has a 50% earn-in interest in the 7,005 hectare Copalquin property in Durango, Mexico. Copalquin lies within Mexico's prolific Sierra Madre Mining Belt mineralogical belt which is presently one of the most active areas of silver and gold exploration and mine development in North America.

On behalf of the board of directors,

Eugene Larabie P.Eng., Director
