News Release November 17th, 2005 Torreon, Coahuila Mexico; UC Resources Ltd. (TSXV: UC)

Mr. Richard Hamelin reports that Mrs. Nicole Wood C.G.A. will be joining UC Resources management team and that Mr. Miguel Angel Matas will be joining the company's Advisory board.

Mrs. Wood holds an Honors of Commerce in Business and her professional designation as a Certified General Accountant in Canada. Over the past nine years, Mrs. Wood has acquired a full range of accounting and financial management experience in several industries such as resources, technology and investment companies, all of which were publicly listed on Canadian or US Stock Exchanges. Prior to this, she had worked her way up to Vice President of a Canadian Mercantile Investment Banking Corporation. Mrs Wood will be joining the company as its Chief Financial Officer in 2006 however in the interim; she will join as a consultant and will assist in improving the accounting and internal control systems of the company, as well as assisting in the preparation of all financial reporting requirements.

Mr. Miguel Angel Matas has enjoyed a successful professional career over the last 40 years in Mexico and has been involved in roles of top management with directorships in several of Mexico's banking, mining, manufacturing, forestry and exporting corporations. His mining background is vast and encompasses all aspects of business development. Mr. Matas' mining experiences range from establishing successful exploration projects, to bringing projects into productive milling operations. Mr. Matas has extensive knowledge of the Copalquin Mining District. As President of UC Resource's Mexican subsidiary (Minera Planet Explorations S.A. de C.V), he will be instrumental in UC's growth plans by utilizing his extensive network of contacts and business acumen.

Since 1975, Mr. Matas founded several private business enterprises that involved importing and exporting products internationally from numerous Mexican industry's such as agriculture, glass, aluminum, lubrication and combustibles, forestry and sawmills.

I am very pleased to announce these new appointments and I welcome Mrs. Wood and Mr. Matas to the UC Resources Ltd team, knowing in advance that their contributions to the Company will be invaluable. The Company is continuing to focus on improving the quality of its management team, and intends to continue its efforts to evolve into an important explorer and eventually producer of precious metals.

On behalf of the board of directors,

Richard J. Hamelin, President/CEO/Director
